

Sinclair's broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is an example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy.

This documentary broadcast shows the dangers of media consolidation. One-sided programs like "Stolen Honor" do not serve the public's best interest, and they are harmful to our democracy.

Sinclair may own public media stations, but the airwaves are free of charge. It is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is important that public airways do not become politically biased, as it is against the law.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Please do not allow to airing of the program "Stolen Honor". Thank you.
